Inserts new sections

8 The principal Act is amended by inserting the following next after section 25—

“School based accountability

25A (1) The Commissioner of Education, in consultation with the Board, shall design and implement an accountability system that sets annual performance standards for schools in order to measure the performance of the students in each school.

(2) The accountability system shall—

(a) focus on student performance in English/language arts/reading, mathematics, science and social studies, from primary 3 level through to senior 2 level, inclusive;

(b) set minimum performance standards for schools generally;

(c) set levels of growth in performance expected for each school;

(d) make principals and teachers accountable for the educational growth of students in their schools.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(a), the Commissioner of Education may extend the accountability system to include subjects and grades other than those mentioned in that subsection.

Performance recognition

25B Where in any school year a school exceeds its expected level of growth by a margin to be determined by the Commissioner of Education, in consultation with the Board, and communicated to the principal and teachers of that school in advance of the school year, any or all of the principal and teachers of that school shall be eligible for financial awards in amounts, and in accordance with guidelines, established by the Commissioner of Education in consultation with the Board.

Low performing schools

25C (1) The Commissioner of Education, in consultation with the Board, shall design and implement a procedure to identify low performing schools on an annual basis.
(2) Where a school has been identified as a low performing school, the manager of the school, in consultation with the principal and teachers of the school, shall prepare and implement a plan for improvement of the school, and the plan shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Education for the Commissioner's approval.

(3) Where a school has been identified as a low performing school for two consecutive school years, the Commissioner of Education shall take measures aimed at the improvement of student performance at the school. Measures may include provision of additional resources, adoption of new programs or changes in the principal or teaching staff.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a “low performing school” in any school year is one that fails to meet the minimum performance standards or the expected level of growth referred to in section 25A(2), or one in which a majority of the students in the school perform below grade level according to the curriculum standards referred to in section 25F, in that school year.

Students at risk of academic failure

25D (1) Every school shall identify each of its students who is at risk of academic failure.

(2) Identification shall occur as early as possible and may be based on grades, observations, curriculum-based assessment and other factors that impact student performance as considered appropriate by principals and teachers at any time, without having to wait for testing at the end of a school year.

(3) As soon as a student is identified as being at risk of academic failure, and at the beginning of every school year while the student remains at risk, the principal shall ensure that an individual education plan for academic improvement, with focused intervention and performance benchmarks, is developed for that student.

(4) In this section, a “student who is at risk of academic failure” means a student who is not at least at grade level according to the curriculum standards referred to in section 25F.

Academic performance standards

25E (1) The Commissioner of Education shall develop academic performance standards for students from preschool level through senior school level.
(2) The standards shall, where possible, align with international standards for measuring the academic performance of students.

Curriculum standards
25F (1) The Commissioner of Education, in consultation with the Board, shall develop curriculum standards from the preschool level through to the senior school level, inclusive.

(2) The development of the standards shall include—
(a) provision for periodic evaluation of the standards;
(b) identification of persons or groups affected by the standards;
(c) provision of timelines for evaluations of the various parts of the curriculum;
(d) development of methods for assessing the standards;
(e) provision for benchmarking the standards against international curriculum standards; and
(f) provision for review of the standards every 5 years.

Testing of students
25G (1) The Commissioner of Education shall develop tests for assessing on an annual basis the performance of students from primary 3 level through to senior 2 level, inclusive, in English/language arts/reading, mathematics, science, and social studies.

(2) Tests shall be benchmarked against international assessment standards where possible.

(3) The Commissioner of Education shall develop, or otherwise provide, formative and diagnostic tests, aligned with annual tests, for use during the year to assist in the delivery of instruction.

(4) In order to ensure proper administration of annual tests, the Commissioner of Education, in consultation with the Board, shall develop guidelines for the appropriate actions of persons involved in administering tests, including appropriate disciplinary measures for breach of the guidelines. Guidelines are not statutory instruments within the meaning of the Statutory Instruments Act 1977.

1 A person may not be appointed as a member of the Board for more than two consecutive terms.

2 (1) A failure of a member of the Board to attend three consecutive meetings of the Board, without reasonable excuse, is cause for termination of their appointment.

(2) If a member of the Board becomes, in the opinion of the Minister, unfit to continue in office or incapable of performing their duties, the Minister shall forthwith declare their office vacant, and shall notify the fact in such manner as the Minister thinks fit, and thereupon the office shall become vacant.

(3) A member of the Board may at any time resign by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister, and upon the date of receipt by the Minister of the instrument, the member ceases to be a member.

3 (1) The Minister may, in accordance with section 3 appoint a person to fill a vacancy in the membership of the Board and the person so appointed shall hold office for the unexpired term of the former member.
(2) Any changes in the membership of the Board shall be published in the Gazette.

(3) The powers of the Board may be exercised notwithstanding any vacancy in their number.

4 The members of the Board may from time to time appoint one of their number (other than the Chairman) as Deputy Chairman of the Board.

5 (1) The Board shall meet at least monthly and meetings shall be held at such places, on such dates and at such times as the Board considers necessary or expedient for the transaction of the business of the Board.

6 (1) The Chairman may, at any time, call a meeting of the Board and shall call a special meeting within fourteen days of receiving—

(a) a request in writing signed by any three members; or

(b) a direction in writing signed by the Minister.

(2) A notice convening a special meeting of the Board shall state the purpose for which the special meeting is being convened.

7 Notice of the place, date and time of meetings shall be given in writing, to each member of the Board, at least forty-eight hours before the time fixed for such meeting. Notice shall be given in the same manner to the persons referred to in section 3(2) of the Act.
