(c) being subject to financial supervision in Bermuda;

“return” means a return or report required under regulation 6;

“Surrogate Parent Entity” means one Constituent Entity of the MNE Group that has been appointed by such MNE Group, as the sole substitute for the Ultimate Parent Entity, to file the country-by-country report in that Constituent Entity’s jurisdiction of tax residence, on behalf of such MNE Group, when one or more of the conditions set out in regulation 6(2) apply;

“Systemic Failure””, with respect to a jurisdiction, means that a jurisdiction has a Qualifying Competent Authority Agreement in effect with Bermuda, but has suspended automatic exchange (for reasons other than those that are in accordance with the terms of that Agreement) or otherwise persistently failed to automatically provide to Bermuda country-by-country reports in its possession of MNE Groups that have Constituent Entities in Bermuda (as applicable);

“Ultimate Parent Entity” means a Constituent Entity of an MNE Group that meets the following criteria—

- (a) it owns directly or indirectly a sufficient interest in one or more other Constituent Entities of such MNE Group such that it is required to prepare Consolidated Financial Statements under accounting principles generally applied in its jurisdiction of tax residence, or would be so required if its equity interests were traded on a public securities exchange in its jurisdiction of tax residence; and
- (b) there is no other Constituent Entity of such MNE Group that owns directly or indirectly an interest described in paragraph (a) in the first mentioned Constituent Entity.

(2) In these Regulations, a word or expression which is defined in the Act has that meaning for terms not defined under paragraph (1), except to the extent that a person may use as an alternative a definition in a Qualifying Competent Authority Agreement and in so far as such use would not frustrate the purposes of the Qualifying Competent Authority Agreement.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, these Regulations apply to Constituent Entities resident in Bermuda for tax purposes.

PART 2

APPLICATION OF COUNTRY-BY-COUNTRY REPORTING

Country-by-country reporting in force

3 The provision of information by means of country-by-country reports pursuant to section 4B of the Act applies in Bermuda in relation to a Qualifying Competent Authority

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION (TAX INFORMATION EXCHANGE

---

Agreement that Bermuda may enter into with another jurisdiction, which is to be implemented in accordance with these Regulations and the CbCR.

Meaning of “country-by-country report”

4 (1) For the purpose of these Regulations, a country-by-country report with respect to an MNE Group is a report containing—

- (a) aggregate information relating to the amount of revenue, profit (loss) before income tax, income tax paid, income tax accrued, stated capital, accumulated earnings, number of employees, and tangible assets other than cash or cash equivalents with regard to each jurisdiction in which the MNE Group operates; and
- (b) an identification of each Constituent Entity of the MNE Group setting out the jurisdiction of tax residence of such Constituent Entity, and where different from such jurisdiction of tax residence, the jurisdiction under the laws of which such Constituent Entity is organized, and the nature of the main business activity or activities of such Constituent Entity.

(2) The country-by-country report shall be completed and filed in a form identical to and applying the definitions and instructions contained in the standard template set out at Annex III of Chapter V of the OECD Final Report.

Obligation to notify

5 (1) Any Constituent Entity of an MNE Group that is resident for tax purposes in Bermuda shall notify the Minister whether it is the Ultimate Parent Entity or the Surrogate Parent Entity, no later than 1 September 2017 for Reporting Fiscal Years ending up to 31 August 2017, and thereafter no later than the last day of the Reporting Fiscal Year of such MNE Group.

(2) Each Reporting Constituent Entity required to notify the Minister under paragraphs (1) shall give the Minister—

- (a) a notice (an “information notice”) stating the required information about the Constituent Entity on or before the date required; and
- (b) if any of the required information so notified changes, a notice stating details of the change (a “change notice”).

(3) An information notice or change notice shall be given electronically in such form and manner as the Minister shall determine by—

- (a) posting on an official website, for the information of Constituent Entities generally; or
- (b) stating in a notice given to any particular Constituent Entity in question.

Obligation to report

6 (1) Each Ultimate Parent Entity of an MNE Group that is resident for tax purposes in Bermuda shall file with the Minister on or before the date specified in regulation 7 a country-by-country report conforming to the requirements of these Regulations with respect to its Reporting Fiscal Year.

(2) A Bermuda Reporting Entity shall file with the Minister on or before the date specified in regulation 7 a country-by-country report conforming to the requirements of these Regulations with respect to the Reporting Fiscal Year of an MNE Group of which it is a Bermuda Reporting Entity, if—

- (a) the entity is resident in Bermuda for tax purposes;
- (b) one of the following conditions applies—
  - (i) the Ultimate Parent Entity of the MNE Group is not obligated to file a country-by-country report in its jurisdiction of tax residence;
  - (ii) the jurisdiction in which the Ultimate Parent Entity is resident for tax purposes has a current International Agreement to which Bermuda is a party but does not have a Qualifying Competent Authority Agreement in effect to which Bermuda is a party by the time specified in regulation 7 for filing the country-by-country report for the Reporting Fiscal Year; or
  - (iii) there has been a Systemic Failure of the jurisdiction of tax residence of the Ultimate Parent Entity that has been notified by the Minister to the Constituent Entity resident for tax purposes in Bermuda.

(3) The Minister shall notify Constituent Entities of the form and manner of making returns by—

- (a) a post on an official website, for the information of Constituent Entities generally; or
- (b) a notice given to any particular Constituent Entity in question.

(4) Unless the contrary is proved, the Minister shall assume that a return accepted by the electronic portal—

- (a) has been made as required under paragraph (3); or
- (b) was made—
  - (i) when the return was accepted by the electronic portal;
  - (ii) by whoever made the return by using the electronic portal; and
  - (iii) with the authority of the Bermuda Reporting Entity on whose behalf the return purports to have been made.

Time for filing

7 The country-by-country report required by these Regulations shall be filed no later than twelve months after the last day of the Reporting Fiscal Year of the MNE Group for Reporting Fiscal Years starting on or after 1 January 2016.

Use and confidentiality of country-by-country report information

8 (1) The Minister shall only use the country-by-country reports as necessary for the purposes of assessing high-level transfer pricing risks and other base erosion and profit shifting related risks in Bermuda, including assessing the risk of non-compliance by members of the MNE Group with applicable transfer pricing rules, and where appropriate for economic and statistical analysis (if applicable).

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), transfer pricing adjustments by the Minister (if applicable) will not be based on the country-by-country reports.

(3) The Minister shall preserve the confidentiality of the information contained in the country-by-country report at least to the same extent that would apply if such information were provided to it under the provisions of the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters.

Minister's monitoring function and measures

9 (1) The Minister may, by notice given to a Constituent Entity, require the Constituent Entity—

- (a) within a time specified by the Minister, to provide to the Minister information, including a copy of a relevant book, document or other record, or any electronically stored information; or
- (b) at a time specified by the Minister, to make available to the Minister for inspection, a book, document or other record, or any electronically stored information, that is in the Constituent Entity's possession or under its control that the Minister reasonably requires to decide whether or not information the Constituent Entity gave the Minister was accurate.

(2) If information the Minister wants or wants to inspect is outside Bermuda and the Minister requires the Constituent Entity to bring the information to Bermuda, the Minister shall specify a time that will enable the Constituent Entity to bring the information to Bermuda and the Constituent Entity shall comply with the requirement of the Minister.

(3) A Constituent Entity shall retain for six years a book, document or other record, including any information stored by electronic means, that relates to the information required to be reported to the Minister under this Part.

Anti-avoidance

10 If a person enters into any arrangement, the main purpose or one of the main purposes of which is to avoid any obligation under these Regulations, the arrangement is deemed not to have been entered into by the person and these Regulations are to have effect as if the arrangement had never been in existence.

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION (TAX INFORMATION EXCHANGE

---

PART 3
OFFENCES

Offence to contravene notification, reporting and monitoring regulations

11 A person commits an offence if that person contravenes any provision of regulation 5, regulation 6, or regulation 9.

Tampering offence

12 A person commits an offence if the person—

- (a) alters, destroys, mutilates, defaces, hides or removes information in a way that causes the person or anyone else to contravene these Regulations in relation to the information; or
- (b) authorizes, advises or counsels someone else to contravene paragraph (a).

Hindering offence

13 A person commits an offence if the person hinders the Minister in performing a function under these Regulations or the Act.

Reasonable excuse defence

14 (1) It is a defence to an offence against these Regulations for the defendant to prove that the defendant had a reasonable excuse.

(2) However, neither insufficiency of funds nor reliance on an agent (or anyone else) is a reasonable excuse.

(3) If a defendant had a reasonable excuse for committing an offence but the excuse has ceased, the defendant is to be treated as having continued to have the excuse if the offence is remedied without unreasonable delay after the excuse ceased.

Punishment for offences under these Regulations

15 A person who commits an offence under these Regulations is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

PART 4
PENALTIES

Civil penalty not to apply in case of conviction

16 (1) When a person is convicted of an offence under Part 3, such person shall not also be liable to a civil penalty imposed under this Part.

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION (TAX INFORMATION EXCHANGE

---

(2) When a person is liable for a civil penalty imposed under this Part, such person shall not also be charged with an offence under Part 3 in relation to the same matter.

(3) Any civil penalty payable under this Part may be recovered by the Accountant General in the Supreme Court or in a court of summary jurisdiction as a civil debt.

Penalty for failure to comply with Regulations

17 A person who fails to comply with any obligation under these Regulations is liable to a civil penalty not exceeding $4,000.

Daily default penalty

18 Any person who fails to pay the civil penalty imposed under regulation 17 shall be liable to a further penalty of an amount not exceeding $200 for each day during which the first penalty remains unpaid.

Penalties for inaccurate information

- 19 (1) A person is liable to a civil penalty not exceeding $5,000, if—
- (a) the person provides inaccurate information when filing a country-by-country report; and
  - (b) condition A or B is met.
- (2) Condition A is that the person knows of the inaccuracy at the time the information is provided but does not inform the Minister at that time.
- (3) Condition B is that the person—
- (a) discovers the inaccuracy after the information is provided to the Minister; and
  - (b) fails to take reasonable steps to inform the Minister.

Matters to be disregarded in relation to liability to penalties

20 (1) Liability to a civil penalty under this Part does not arise if there is a reasonable excuse for the failure to comply or provision of inaccurate information.

(2) For the purposes of this Regulation, neither of the following is a reasonable excuse—

- (a) that there is an insufficiency of funds to do something; or
- (b) that a person relies upon another person to do something.

(3) If a person had a reasonable excuse for a failure but the excuse has ceased, the person is to be treated as having continued to have the excuse if the failure is remedied without unreasonable delay after the excuse has ceased.

Imposition of penalties

21 (1) If a person becomes liable to a civil penalty under this Part, the Minister may impose the penalty.

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION (TAX INFORMATION EXCHANGE

---

(2) If the Minister intends to impose a civil penalty, the Minister must notify the person of his intention and the notice must specify—

- (a) the Minister's reasons for holding the person liable to a civil penalty; and
- (b) a reasonable period (which may not be less than 14 days) within which the person to whom it is given may make representations to the Minister, and where such representations are made, the Minister shall take them into account in deciding whether to impose the civil penalty.

(3) A civil penalty under regulation 17 or 18 may only be imposed within the period of twelve months beginning with the date on which the person became liable to the penalty.

(4) A civil penalty under regulation 19 may only be imposed—

- (a) within the period of twelve months beginning with the date on which the inaccuracy first came to the attention of the Minister; and
- (b) within the period of six years beginning with the date on which the person became liable to the penalty.

Right of appeal

22 (1) A person upon whom a civil penalty is imposed may, subject to this Regulation, appeal against it to the Supreme Court, pursuant to Order 55 of the Rules of the Supreme Court 1985.

(2) An appeal under this regulation may be made on questions of law or fact or both and the Supreme Court may affirm or reverse the penalty or substitute its own penalty for that of the Minister.

(3) A person upon whom a civil penalty is imposed may appeal it on the ground that liability to a penalty does not arise.

(4) A person upon whom a civil penalty is imposed may appeal against the amount imposed by the Minister.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt, this regulation does not limit or otherwise affect any obligation of the person or Constituent Entity under these Regulations.

Made this 19th day of April 2017
