(2) An LLC agreement may provide for the taking of an action, including the amendment of the LLC agreement, without the vote or approval of any member or class or group of members, including an action to create, under the provisions of the LLC agreement, a class or group of LLC interests that was not previously outstanding.

(3) An LLC agreement may provide that any member or class or group of members shall have no voting rights.

(5) Unless otherwise provided in its LLC agreement or this Act, any matter to be decided by a vote of the members or class or group of members shall be decided by the requisite majority of votes based on the then current percentage or other interest in the profits of the limited liability company owned by all of the members or by the members in each class or group, as appropriate.

(6) An LLC agreement may grant to all or certain identified members or a specified class or group of the members the right to vote separately or with all or any class or group of the members or managers, on any matter, and voting by members may be on a per capita, number, financial interest, class, group or any other basis pro rata in accordance with their LLC interests.

(10) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, if a person (whether or not then a member) consenting as a member to any matter provides that such consent will be effective at a future time (including a time determined upon the happening of an event), then such person shall be deemed to have consented as a member at such future time so long as such person is then a member.

(11) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, on any matter that is to be voted on by members, the members may vote in person or by proxy, and such proxy may be granted in writing, by means of electronic transmission or as otherwise permitted by applicable law.

(12) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, a consent transmitted by electronic transmission by a member or by a person or persons authorised to act for a member shall be deemed to be written and signed for purposes of this section.

proportions of the members of that class or group or the sanction of a resolution passed at a separate meeting of that class or group, and in pursuance of the said provision the rights attached to any such class or group are at any time varied, the holders of not less in the aggregate than 10 percent of the LLC interests (or, where the members of the class or group have no LLC interests, 10 percent of the members) of that class or group may apply to the Court to have the variation cancelled, and, where any such application is made, the variation shall not have effect unless and until it is confirmed by the Court.

(2) An application under this section must be made within 28 days after the date on which the consent was given or the resolution was passed, as the case may be, and may be made on behalf of the members entitled to make the application by such one or more of their number as they may appoint in writing for the purpose.

(3) On any such application, the Court, after hearing the applicant and any other persons who apply to the Court to be heard and appear to the Court to be interested in the application, may, if it is satisfied, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, that the variation would unfairly prejudice the members of the class or group represented by the applicant, disallow the variation and shall, if not so satisfied, confirm the variation.

(4) The decision of the Court on any such application shall be final.

(5) The limited liability company shall within 21 days after the making of an order by the Court on any such application forward a copy of the order to the Registrar, and, if default is made in complying with this provision, the limited liability company and any manager of the limited liability company who is in default shall be liable to a default fine.

(6) If the LLC agreement of a limited liability company the members of which are divided into different classes or groups makes no provision for varying the rights attached to any class or group and nothing in the LLC agreement precludes a variation of such rights, the rights attached to any class or group may be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of a majority of the LLC interests of that class or group (or, where the members of the class or group have no LLC interests, a majority of the members).

(7) The expression "variation" in this section includes abrogation and the expression "varied" shall be construed accordingly.

48 (1) Except as otherwise provided by this Act, the debts, obligations and liabilities of a limited liability company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations and liabilities of the limited liability company, and no manager or member of a limited liability company shall be obligated personally for any such debt, obligation or liability of the limited liability company solely by reason of being a member or a manager of the limited liability company.

65K (1) This section applies where—

- (a) a notice under section 65E or 65G is served by a limited liability company on a beneficial owner; and
- (b) that person fails to give the limited liability company the information required by the notice within the time specified in it.

(2) Where subsection (1) applies, the limited liability company may—

- (a) if its LLC Agreement so provides, issue a warning notice to that person advising of its intention to impose restrictions on that person's LLC interest;
- (b) if its LLC agreement so provides, issue a decision notice to a person advising of the imposition of restrictions on that person's LLC interests, provided that such decision notice shall not take effect until at least 30 days following the date of receipt of any such decision notice; or

(c) apply to the Court for an order directing that the LLC interest in question be subject to restrictions.

(3) In deciding whether, pursuant to a warning notice, to issue a decision notice or apply to the Court under subsection (2)(c), and after first giving the person the opportunity to make representations, the limited liability company shall have regard to the effect of the decision notice or order on the rights of persons in respect of the relevant LLC interest, including—

- (a) third parties;
- (b) persons with a security interest over the relevant LLC interest;
- (c) members; and
- (d) other beneficial owners.

(4) If the Court is satisfied that such an order issued under subsection (2)(c) may unfairly affect the rights of third parties in respect of the LLC interest, the Court may, for the purpose of protecting those rights and subject to such terms as it thinks fit, direct that such acts by such persons and for such purposes as may be set out in the order shall not constitute a breach of the restrictions.

(5) On an application under this section, the Court may make an interim order and any such order may be made unconditionally or on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

(6) The effect of a decision notice issued by a limited liability company or an order made by the Court under this section is that the LLC interest in question may be subject to restrictions as follows—

- (c) no further LLC interest may be issued in right of the LLC interest or in pursuance of an offer made to its holder;
- (d) no payment may be made of sums due from the limited liability company on the LLC interest, whether in respect of capital or otherwise.

(7) Where an LLC interest is subject to the restriction in subsection (6)(c) or (d), an agreement to transfer any right to be issued with other LLC interests in right of that LLC interest, or to receive any payment on it (otherwise than in a liquidation), is void.

(8) The provisions of this section are subject to any directions for protection of third parties or otherwise given by the Court.

(9) The Court on the application of—

- (a) any person aggrieved by any action taken by the limited liability company pursuant to this section; or
- (b) any person aggrieved in so far as protecting the rights of third parties, persons with a security interest over the relevant interest, shareholders or other beneficial owners in respect of the relevant interest in respect of which a decision notice has been issued, may set aside or affirm a notice in whole or in part and give such directions as the Court thinks fit if the Court is satisfied that the decision notice unfairly affects the protection of the rights of third parties.

(10) Section 62 of the Supreme Court Act 1905 shall be deemed to extend to the making of rules under that section to regulate the practice and procedure on an application or an appeal to the Court under this section.

(3) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement—

- (a) an assignment of an LLC interest does not entitle the assignee to become or to exercise any rights or powers of a member;
- (b) an assignment of an LLC interest entitles the assignee to share in such profits and losses, to receive such distribution or distributions, and to receive such allocation of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit or similar item to which the assignor was entitled, to the extent assigned; and
- (c) a member ceases to be a member and to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of a member upon assignment of all of the member's LLC interest.

(4) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, the granting of a security interest or other encumbrance over or against, any or all of the LLC interest of a member shall not cause the member to cease to be a member or to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of a member.

(5) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, a member's interest in a limited liability company may be evidenced by a certificate of LLC interest issued by the limited liability company.

(6) An LLC agreement may provide for the assignment or transfer of any LLC interest represented by a certificate of LLC interest and make other provisions with respect to such certificates, except that a limited liability company shall not have the power to issue a certificate of LLC interest in bearer form.

(7) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement and except to the extent assumed by agreement, until an assignee of an LLC interest becomes a member, the assignee shall have no liability as a member solely as a result of the assignment.

(8) Subject to subsection (9), unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, a limited liability company may acquire, by purchase, redemption or otherwise, any LLC interest or other interest of a member or manager in the limited liability company.

(9) No acquisition by purchase, redemption, or otherwise, of any such interest may be effected if, on the date on which the acquisition is to be effected, the managers have reasonable grounds for believing that the limited liability company is, or after the acquisition would be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due.

(10) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, any such interest so acquired by the limited liability company shall be deemed cancelled.

Member's LLC interest subject to charging order

83 (1) On application by a judgment creditor of a member or of a member's assignee, a court having jurisdiction may charge the LLC interest of the judgment debtor to satisfy the judgment.

(2) To the extent charged under subsection (1), the judgment creditor has only the right to receive any distribution or distributions to which the judgment debtor would otherwise have been entitled in respect of such LLC interest.

(3) A charging order constitutes a charge on the judgment debtor's LLC interest.

(4) The entry of a charging order is the exclusive remedy by which a judgment creditor of a member or a member's assignee may satisfy a judgment out of the judgment debtor's LLC interest and attachment, garnishment, foreclosure or other legal or equitable remedies are not available to the judgment creditor, whether the limited liability company has one member or more than one member.

(5) No creditor of a member or of a member's assignee shall have any right to obtain possession of, or otherwise exercise legal or equitable remedies with respect to, the property of the limited liability company.

(6) The Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any matter relating to any such charging order.

Right of assignee to become member

84 (1) An assignee of an LLC interest may become a member—

(a) as provided in the LLC agreement; or

(b) unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, following the affirmative vote or written consent of all of the members of the limited liability company, when the assignee's name is entered on the register of members.

(2) An assignee who has become a member has, to the extent assigned, the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a member under an LLC agreement and this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, an assignee who becomes a member is liable for the obligations of the assignor to make contributions as provided in section 41, but shall not be liable for the obligations of the assignor under Part 9.

(4) The assignee is not obligated for liabilities, including the obligations of the assignor to make contributions as provided in section 41, unknown to the assignee at the time the assignee became a member and which could not be ascertained from the LLC agreement.

(5) Whether or not an assignee of an LLC interest becomes a member, the assignor is not released from liability to a limited liability company under Parts 5 and 9.

Powers of estate of deceased or incompetent member

85 (1) If a member who is an individual dies or a court of competent jurisdiction adjudges the member to be incompetent to manage the member's person or property, the member's personal representative may exercise all of the member's rights for the purpose of settling the member's estate or administering the member's property, including any right or power under an LLC agreement of an assignee to become a member.

(2) If a member is a company or other entity and is dissolved or terminated, the powers of that member may be exercised by its personal representative.

PART 11

AMALGAMATIONS AND MERGERS

Amalgamation and merger

86 (1) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, two or more limited liability companies may, subject to section 67, amalgamate and continue as one limited liability company (the “amalgamated LLC”).

(2) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, two or more limited liability companies may, subject to section 67, merge and their undertaking, property and liabilities shall vest in one of such limited liability companies as the surviving limited liability company (the “surviving LLC”).

(3) Where the amalgamated or surviving LLC will be a local LLC, it must comply with the provisions of Part 2.

Amalgamation or merger of limited liability company and foreign entity and continuation as limited liability company

87 (1) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, one or more limited liability companies and one or more entities with separate legal personality, incorporated, formed or presently registered, as the case may be, outside Bermuda (each such entity hereinafter in this section and in sections 88 to 90 referred to as a “foreign entity”), may—

- (a) amalgamate and continue as the amalgamated LLC in Bermuda; or
- (b) merge and the surviving LLC continue as a limited liability company in Bermuda, to which the provisions of this Act and any other relevant laws of Bermuda shall apply.

(2) In respect of an amalgamation under subsection (1)(a), a foreign entity shall obtain all necessary authorizations, if any, required under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it was incorporated or formed or is presently registered, as the case may be, in order to enable it to amalgamate and for the amalgamated LLC to continue as a limited liability company in Bermuda.

(3) In respect of a merger under subsection (1)(b), a foreign entity shall obtain all necessary authorizations, if any, required under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it was incorporated or formed or is presently registered, as the case may be, in order to enable it to merge and for the surviving LLC to continue as a limited liability company in Bermuda.

- (4) The provisions of sections 91 to 95 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to—
 - (a) an amalgamation under this section in the same way as they apply to an amalgamation under section 86(1); or

- (b) a merger under this section in the same way as they apply to a merger under section 86(2).

Amalgamation or merger of limited liability company and foreign entity and continuation as foreign entity

88 (1) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, one or more limited liability companies and one or more foreign entities may—

- (a) amalgamate and continue as a foreign entity (the “amalgamated entity”); or
- (b) merge and the surviving entity continue as a foreign entity (the “surviving entity”), to which the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is proposed that the amalgamated entity or surviving entity will continue (the “foreign jurisdiction”) shall apply.

(2) A limited liability company shall not amalgamate or merge and continue as a foreign entity pursuant to subsection (1) unless—

- (a) a manager of such limited liability company has made a statutory declaration to the effect that there are reasonable grounds for believing that—
 - (i) such limited liability company is, and the amalgamated entity or surviving entity will be, able to pay its liabilities as they fall due;
 - (ii) the realizable value of the amalgamated entity’s assets or surviving entity’s assets will not be less than the aggregate of its liabilities; and
 - (iii) the amalgamation or merger will not adversely affect the interests or rights of bona fide creditors and members;
- (b) an irrevocable deed poll is executed by such limited liability company and each manager (if any), pursuant to which—
 - (i) such limited liability company and managers may be served with legal process in Bermuda in any proceeding arising out of actions or omissions of such limited liability company occurring prior to the amalgamation or merger, and provision is made for the appointment of a person within Bermuda as agent for such limited liability company for the service of process for a period of not less than three years from the effective date of the amalgamation or merger and for a signed acceptance of the appointment; or
 - (ii) such limited liability company and managers may be served with legal process at a specified address in the United Kingdom, the United States of America or any appointed jurisdiction, and whereby such limited liability company and managers submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that country or jurisdiction;

- (c) each foreign entity which is amalgamating or merging has obtained all necessary authorizations, if any, required under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it was formed or incorporated or is presently registered to enable it to so amalgamate or merge;
- (d) the foreign jurisdiction is—
 - (i) an appointed jurisdiction; or
 - (ii) approved by the Minister, upon application by the limited liability company for the purpose of the amalgamation or merger of the limited liability company with a foreign entity and the continuance of the amalgamated entity or surviving entity as a foreign entity in the foreign jurisdiction;
- (e) at least 14 days and not more than three months prior to the effective date of the amalgamation or merger—
 - (i) each limited liability company which is amalgamating or merging shall advertise in an appointed newspaper; and
 - (ii) each foreign entity which is amalgamating or merging shall advertise in a national newspaper in the jurisdiction in which it was incorporated or formed or is presently registered (as the case may be), its intention to amalgamate and continue as a foreign entity in the foreign jurisdiction or to merge with the surviving entity to continue as a foreign entity in the foreign jurisdiction.

Documents to be filed on amalgamation or merger and continuation as foreign entity
89 (1) A limited liability company shall not amalgamate or merge and continue as a foreign entity pursuant to section 88 unless on or before the effective date of the amalgamation or merger such limited liability company files with the Registrar a notice of amalgamation or merger and continuance as a foreign entity which shall contain or have attached thereto the following information—

- (a) the effective date of the amalgamation or merger;
- (b) the name of the foreign jurisdiction;
- (c) the address of the registered office or the principal business address of the amalgamated entity or surviving entity in the foreign jurisdiction;
- (d) a copy of the statutory declaration required pursuant to section 88(2)(a);
- (e) a copy of the irrevocable deed poll required pursuant to section 88(2)(b); and
- (f) a statement as to whether the limited liability company intends to amalgamate or merge.

(2) Within 30 days after the date of the issue thereof, the amalgamated entity or surviving entity continuing as a foreign entity as a result of an amalgamation or merger pursuant to section 88 shall file with the Registrar a copy of the instrument of amalgamation or merger issued by the appropriate authority of the foreign jurisdiction, or, if no such instrument of amalgamation or merger is issued, such other documentary evidence of the amalgamation or merger as shall be issued by such authority.

(3) On receipt of a copy of the instrument of amalgamation or merger or other documentary evidence of the amalgamation or merger filed under subsection (2), the Registrar shall file that instrument or document and issue a confirmation of amalgamation or merger which shall be in such form as the Minister may determine and thereupon the limited liability company shall cease to be registered as a limited liability company in Bermuda.

(4) The documents filed with the Registrar pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) shall be open to public inspection.

Provisions applicable to amalgamation or merger and continuation as foreign entity

90 (1) The provisions of sections 91 to 93 shall apply, with the necessary changes, to an amalgamation or merger and continuation as a foreign entity pursuant to section 88 in the same way as they apply to an amalgamation or a merger pursuant to section 86, except that the provisions of section 92 shall apply only to amalgamating or merging limited liability companies formed in Bermuda.

(2) The effect of an amalgamation or merger and continuation as a foreign entity pursuant to section 88 shall be the same as in the case of an amalgamation or a merger pursuant to section 87, except insofar as the laws of the foreign jurisdiction otherwise provide.

(3) The effective date of an amalgamation or merger and continuation as a foreign entity pursuant to section 88 shall be the date that the amalgamation or merger is effective pursuant to the laws of the foreign jurisdiction whereupon this Act shall cease to apply to such limited liability company except as is required by the provisions thereof.

Amalgamation agreement or merger agreement

91 (1) Each limited liability company proposing to amalgamate or merge shall enter into an amalgamation agreement or merger agreement, as the case may be, setting out the terms and means of effecting the amalgamation or merger and, in particular, setting out—

- (a) the provisions that are required to be included in the certificate of amalgamation or the certificate of merger;
- (b) the name and address of any proposed manager of the amalgamated or surviving LLC;
- (c) the manner in which the LLC interests of each amalgamating or merging limited liability company are to be exchanged or converted into LLC interests of the amalgamated or surviving LLC;
- (d) if any LLC interests of an amalgamating or merging LLC are not to be converted into LLC interests of the amalgamated or surviving LLC, the amount of money, securities or other property that the holders of such LLC interests are to receive in addition to or instead of LLC interests of the amalgamated or surviving LLC;

- (e) in respect of an amalgamation, whether the LLC agreement of the amalgamated LLC is to be that of one of the amalgamating LLCs and, if not, a copy of the proposed LLC agreement;
- (f) in respect of a merger, any proposed amendments to the LLC agreement of the surviving LLC or, if none are proposed, a statement that the LLC agreement of the surviving LLC immediately prior to the merger shall be its LLC agreement after the merger; and
- (g) details of any arrangements necessary to perfect the amalgamation or merger and to provide for the subsequent management and operation of the amalgamated or surviving LLC.

(2) If LLC interests of one of the amalgamating or merging LLCs are held by or on behalf of another of the amalgamating or merging LLCs, the amalgamation agreement or merger agreement shall provide for the cancellation of such LLC interests when the amalgamation or merger becomes effective without any payment in respect thereof, and no provision shall be made in the amalgamation or merger agreement for the conversion of such LLC interests into LLC interests of the amalgamated or surviving LLC.

Member approval

92 (1) Unless otherwise provided in its LLC agreement, each amalgamating or merging LLC shall submit the amalgamation agreement or merger agreement for approval of its members and, if there is more than one class of members, subject to subsection (5), by each class of members.

(2) A notice of a meeting of members shall be sent to each member of each amalgamating or merging LLC and, unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, shall—

- (a) include or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amalgamation agreement or merger agreement; and
- (b) subject to subsection (3), state—
 - (i) the fair value of such member's LLC interest as determined by the relevant amalgamating or merging LLC; and
 - (ii) that a dissenting member is entitled to be paid the fair value of his LLC interest.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(b)(ii), failure to state the matter referred to in that subsection does not invalidate an amalgamation or merger.

(4) Unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, each LLC interest of an amalgamating or merging LLC carries the right to vote in respect of an amalgamation or merger whether or not it otherwise carries the right to vote.

(5) Unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, the members of a class of members of an amalgamating or merging LLC are entitled to vote separately as a class in respect of an amalgamation or merger if the amalgamation agreement or merger agreement contains a provision which would constitute a variation of the rights attaching to any such class of members for the purposes of section 47.

(6) Any provisions of the LLC agreement relating to the holding of members' meetings shall apply to members' meetings and class meetings required by this section provided that, unless the LLC agreement otherwise provides, the resolution of the members or class must be approved by a majority vote of those voting at such meeting and the quorum necessary for such meeting shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy more than one-third of the LLC interests or the LLC interests of the class, as the case may be.

(7) Unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, any member who did not vote in favour of the amalgamation or merger and who is not satisfied that he has been offered fair value for his LLC interests may within one month of the giving of the notice referred to in subsection (2) apply to the Court to appraise the fair value of his LLC interests.

(8) Subject to subsection (9), within one month of the Court appraising the fair value of any LLC interests under subsection (7) the limited liability company shall be entitled either—

- (a) to pay to the dissenting member an amount equal to the value of his LLC interests as appraised by the Court; or
- (b) to terminate the amalgamation or merger in accordance with subsection (12).

(9) Where the Court has appraised any LLC interests under subsection (7) and the amalgamation or merger has proceeded prior to the appraisal then, within one month of the Court appraising the value of the LLC interests, if the amount paid to the dissenting member for his LLC interests is less than that appraised by the Court, the amalgamated or surviving LLC shall pay to such member the difference between the amount paid to him and the value appraised by the Court.

(10) No appeal shall lie from an appraisal by the Court under this section.

(11) The costs of any application to the Court under this section shall be in the discretion of the Court.

(12) An amalgamation agreement or merger agreement may provide that at any time before the issue of a certificate of amalgamation or certificate of merger such agreement may, unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, be terminated by the managers, if any, of an amalgamating or merging LLC, notwithstanding approval of the agreement by the members of all or any of the amalgamating or merging LLCs.

Short form amalgamation or merger

93 (1) Unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, a limited liability company (the "parent LLC") and one or more of its wholly-owned LLCs ("subsidiary LLCs") may amalgamate and continue as one limited liability company or merge and the parent LLC continue as the surviving LLC without complying with sections 91 and 92 if—

- (a) the amalgamation or merger is approved by each amalgamating or merging LLC by the person or persons in whom the management of such limited liability company is vested pursuant to section 60; and
- (b) the resolutions provide that—
 - (i) the LLC interests of each amalgamating or merging subsidiary LLC shall be cancelled without any payment in respect thereof;
 - (ii) the certificate of formation and LLC agreement of the amalgamated or surviving LLC shall be the same as the certificate of formation and LLC agreement of the amalgamating or merging parent LLC; and
 - (iii) no LLC interests shall be issued by the amalgamated or surviving LLC in connection with the amalgamation or merger.

(2) Two or more subsidiary LLCs of the same parent LLC may amalgamate and continue as one limited liability company or merge and one of the subsidiary LLCs may continue as the surviving LLC without complying with sections 91 and 92 if—

- (a) the amalgamation or merger is approved by each amalgamating or merging LLC by the person or persons in whom the management of such limited liability company is vested;
- (b) in respect of an amalgamation, the resolutions provide that—
 - (i) the LLC interests of all but one of the amalgamating subsidiary LLCs shall be cancelled without any payment in respect thereof; and
 - (ii) the certificate of formation and LLC agreement of the amalgamated LLC shall be the same as the certificate of formation and LLC agreement of the amalgamating subsidiary LLC whose LLC interests are not cancelled; and
- (c) in respect of a merger, the resolutions provide that—
 - (i) one of the merging subsidiary LLCs is the surviving LLC;
 - (ii) the LLC interests of all but the surviving LLC shall be cancelled without any payment in respect thereof; and
 - (iii) the LLC agreement shall be the same as the LLC agreement of the surviving LLC.

(3) In this section, where it is intended that there be a continuation of a foreign entity after the amalgamation or merger, the term “surviving LLC” shall be deemed to include “surviving entity”.

Registration of amalgamated or surviving LLC

94 (1) The limited liability companies which are to amalgamate shall jointly file with the Registrar a certificate of amalgamation executed on behalf of each such limited liability company in accordance with section 34 and which shall state—

- (a) the name of the amalgamated LLC and, if applicable, its secondary name;
- (b) the address of the registered office of the amalgamated LLC;
- (c) the name of each limited liability company which is to amalgamate; and
- (d) any other matters the members determine to include therein.

(2) The limited liability companies which are to merge shall jointly file with the Registrar a certificate of merger, executed on behalf of each such limited liability company in accordance with section 34 and which shall state—

- (a) the name of the surviving LLC and, if applicable, its secondary name;
- (b) the address of the registered office of the surviving LLC;
- (c) the name of each LLC which is to merge; and
- (d) any other matters the members determine to include therein.

(3) The certificate of amalgamation or certificate of merger shall be accompanied by a statutory declaration by a manager of each amalgamating or merging LLC confirming that there are reasonable grounds for believing that—

- (a) each amalgamating or merging LLC is and the amalgamated LLC or surviving LLC will be able to pay its liabilities as they become due;
- (b) the realizable value of the amalgamated or surviving LLC's assets will not be less than the aggregate of its liabilities; and
- (c) the amalgamation or merger will not adversely affect the interests or rights of bona fide creditors or members.

(4) The limited liability companies are amalgamated or merged at the time of filing with the Registrar of the certificate of amalgamation or the certificate of merger (as the case may be) or at any later date or time (which shall be a date or time certain) specified in the certificate of amalgamation or the certificate of merger if, in either case, there has been compliance with the requirements of this section, whereupon—

- (a) the certificate of amalgamation shall be deemed to be the certificate of formation of the amalgamated LLC and the provisions of this Act respecting a certificate of formation shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the certificate of amalgamation, however, the date of formation of a limited liability company is its original date of formation and its amalgamation with another limited liability company does not alter its original date of formation; or
- (b) the certificate of merger shall be deemed to be the certificate of formation of the surviving LLC and the provisions of this Act respecting a certificate of formation shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the certificate of merger, however the date of formation of the surviving LLC is its original date of formation and its merger with another limited liability company does not alter the surviving LLC's original date of formation.

Effect of certificate of amalgamation or merger

95 (1) On the filing with the Registrar of a certificate of amalgamation or on the future effective date or time (which shall be a date or time certain) specified in a certificate of amalgamation filed with the Registrar—

- (a) the amalgamation of the amalgamating LLCs and their continuance as one limited liability company shall become effective;
- (b) any amendment to the LLC agreement of the amalgamated LLC, in accordance with the amalgamation agreement, shall become effective;
- (c) the property of each amalgamating LLC shall become the property of the amalgamated LLC;
- (d) the amalgamated LLC shall continue to be liable for the obligations of each amalgamating LLC;
- (e) an existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution shall be unaffected;
- (f) a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against an amalgamating LLC may be continued to be prosecuted by or against the amalgamated LLC;
- (g) a conviction against, or ruling, order or judgment in favour of or against, an amalgamating LLC may be enforced by or against the amalgamated LLC.

(2) On the filing with the Registrar of a certificate of merger or on the future effective date or time specified in a certificate of merger filed with the Registrar—

- (a) the merger of the merging LLCs and the vesting of their undertaking, property and liabilities in the surviving LLC shall become effective;
- (b) any amendment to the LLC agreement of the surviving LLC, in accordance with the merger agreement, shall become effective;
- (c) the surviving LLC shall continue to be liable for the obligations of each merging LLC;
- (d) an existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution shall be unaffected;
- (e) a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against a merging LLC may be continued to be prosecuted by or against the surviving LLC;

- (f) a conviction against, or ruling, order or judgment in favour of or against, a merging LLC may be enforced by or against the surviving LLC;
- (g) the Registrar shall strike off the register each Bermuda registered merging LLC that is not the surviving LLC and each such merging LLC will be dissolved; and
- (h) the cessation of a merging LLC that is not the surviving LLC in a merger shall not be a winding up for the purposes of this Act.

(3) No defect in the formalities leading up to the amalgamation or merger of a limited liability company shall affect the validity of the amalgamation or merger thereof and a certificate of filing of certificate of amalgamation or merger shall be conclusive evidence of the due amalgamation or merger of the limited liability company (as the case may be) and the date of such amalgamation or merger.

PART 12

CONTINUANCE AND DISCONTINUANCE OF LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY AND CONVERSION OF LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

Continuance in Bermuda of foreign limited liability companies

96 (1) Subject as provided in this section, a foreign limited liability company may continue in Bermuda by filing with the Registrar, in accordance with section 36—

- (a) a certificate of continuance that has been executed by an authorised person in accordance with section 34; and
- (b) the Authority's consent to the continuation of the foreign limited liability company as an exempted LLC in Bermuda, the application for which consent shall be in such form and accompanied by such documents as the Authority may require, provided that the consent of the Authority shall not be required where the persons seeking to continue the foreign limited liability company have engaged the services of a Licensed Corporate Service Provider.

(2) Where the Authority refuses consent to the continuance of a foreign limited liability company pursuant to subsection (1), the Authority shall not be bound to give any reason for such refusal and that refusal shall not be subject to appeal or review in any court.

(3) Prior to filing a certificate of continuance with the Registrar under subsection (1), a foreign limited liability company seeking to be continued in Bermuda shall—

- (a) obtain all necessary authorizations, if any, required under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it was formed or is presently registered in order to enable it to continue as an exempted LLC in Bermuda; and
- (b) reserve the name of the exempted LLC in accordance with section 7.

(4) The certificate of continuance shall state—

- (a) the name of the exempted LLC and, if applicable, its secondary name;

- (b) the address of the registered office of the exempted LLC;
- (c) the name of the foreign limited liability company immediately prior to the filing of the certificate of continuance;
- (d) the date on which, and jurisdiction where, the foreign limited liability company was first formed;
- (e) the jurisdiction from which the foreign limited liability company is continuing; and
- (f) any other matter the members determine to include in the certificate.

(5) A foreign limited liability company shall be continued as an exempted LLC in Bermuda at the time of the filing of its certificate of continuance with the Registrar or at any later date or time (which shall be a date or time certain) specified in the certificate of continuance if, in either case, there has been compliance with the requirements of this section, whereupon—

- (a) the foreign limited liability company will become an exempted LLC to which this Act and any other relevant laws of Bermuda shall apply as if it had been formed in Bermuda on such date or time; and
- (b) its certificate of continuance shall be deemed its certificate of formation and the provisions of this Act regarding a certificate of formation shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the certificate of continuance.

(6) Upon the continuance of a foreign limited liability company as an exempted LLC in Bermuda—

- (a) the property of the foreign limited liability company continues to be the property of the exempted LLC;
- (b) the exempted LLC continues to be liable for the obligations of the foreign limited liability company;
- (c) any existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution in respect of the foreign limited liability company is unaffected;
- (d) any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against the foreign limited liability company may be continued by or against the exempted LLC; and
- (e) any conviction against, or any ruling, order or judgment in favour of or against the foreign limited liability company may be enforced by or against the exempted LLC.

(7) The continuance of a foreign limited liability company under this section shall not be deemed to—

- (a) create a new legal entity; or

- (b) prejudice or affect the continuity of the exempted LLC which was formerly a foreign limited liability company, now an exempted LLC continued in Bermuda under this section.

(9) In connection with a continuation in Bermuda, the members shall enter into an LLC agreement in accordance with section 5.

PART 13

DISSOLUTION

Modes of winding up

104 The winding up of a limited liability company may be either by the Court or voluntary and this Act, subject to any other Act, shall be applied to the winding up of a limited liability company by either of these modes.

Liability as contributories of present and past members

105 In the event of a limited liability company being wound up, every present and past member shall be liable to contribute to the assets of the limited liability company to an amount sufficient for payment of its debts and liabilities, and the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, subject to the following qualifications—

- (a) a past member shall not be liable to contribute in respect of any debt or liability of the limited liability company contracted after he ceased to be a member;
- (b) a past member shall not be liable to contribute unless it appears to the Court that the existing members are unable to satisfy the contributions required to be made by them in pursuance of this Act;
- (c) no contribution shall be required from any member exceeding the amount of any contribution that has not been made in respect of which he is liable as a present or past member;
- (d) nothing in this Act shall invalidate any provision contained in any policy of insurance or other contract whereby the liability of individual members on the policy or contract is restricted, or whereby the funds of the limited liability company are alone made liable in respect of the policy or contract;
- (e) a sum due to any member of a limited liability company, in his character as a member, by way of distributions, profits or otherwise shall not be deemed to be a debt of the limited liability company payable to that member in a case of competition between himself and any other creditor not a member of the limited liability company, but any such sum may be taken into account for the purpose of the final adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

Definition and nature of liability of a contributory

106 (1) The term “contributory” means every person liable to contribute to the assets of a limited liability company in the event of its being wound up, and for the purposes of all proceedings prior to the final determining of the persons who are to be deemed contributories, includes any person alleged to be a contributory.

(2) The liability of a contributory shall create a debt of the nature of a specialty accruing due from him at the time when his liability commenced but payable at the times when calls are made for enforcing the liability.

Contributories in a case of death or bankruptcy of a member 107 (1) If a contributory dies either before or after he has been placed on the list of contributories, his estate representatives shall be liable in the due course of the administration to contribute to the assets of the limited liability company in discharge of his liability and shall be contributories accordingly.

(2) If the estate representatives make default in paying any money ordered to be paid by them, proceedings may be taken for administering the estate of the deceased contributory and for compelling payment thereof of the money due.

(3) If a contributory becomes bankrupt, either before or after he has been placed on the list of contributories—

- (a) his trustee in bankruptcy shall represent him for all the purposes of the winding up, and shall be a contributory accordingly, and may be called on to admit to proof against the estate of the bankrupt, or otherwise allow to be paid out of his assets in due course of law, any money due from the bankrupt in respect of his liability to contribute to the estate of the limited liability company; and
- (b) there may be proved against the estate of the bankrupt the estimated value of his liability to future calls as well as calls already made.

Circumstances in which a limited liability company may be wound up by the Court 108 In addition to any other provision in this or any other Act prescribing for the winding up of a limited liability company, a limited liability company may be wound up by the Court if —

- (a) the limited liability company has by resolution of the members resolved that the limited liability company be wound up by the Court;
- (b) the limited liability company does not commence its business within a year of its formation or suspends its business for a whole year;
- (c) the limited liability company carries on any restricted business activity in contravention of section 67;
- (d) the limited liability company engages in a prohibited business activity in contravention of section 68;
- (e) the limited liability company is unable to pay its debts;
- (f) the consent by the Minister, where under this Act such consent was required, was obtained as a result of a material misstatement in the application for consent;
- (g) the Court is of the opinion that it is just and equitable that the limited liability company should be wound up; or
- (h) it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the limited liability company's business in conformity with its LLC agreement.

Definition of inability to pay debts

109 A limited liability company shall be deemed to be unable to pay its debts—

- (a) if a creditor, by assignment or otherwise, to whom the limited liability company is indebted in a sum exceeding $500 then due has served on the limited liability company, by leaving it at the registered office of the limited liability company, a demand requiring the limited liability company to pay the sum so due and the limited liability company has for three weeks thereafter neglected to pay the sum or to secure or compound for it to the reasonable satisfaction of the creditor; or

- (b) if the execution or other process issued on a judgment, decree or order of any court in favour of a creditor of the limited liability company is returned unsatisfied in whole or in part; or
- (c) if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the limited liability company is unable to pay its debts; in determining whether a limited liability company is unable to pay its debts, the Court shall take into account the contingent and prospective liabilities of the limited liability company.

Provision as to applications for winding up

110 (1) An application to the Court for the winding up of a limited liability company shall be by petition, presented either by the limited liability company or by any creditor or creditors, including any contingent or prospective creditor or creditors, contributory or contributories, or by all of those parties, together or separately, except that —

- (a) a contributory shall not be entitled to present a winding up petition unless the LLC interest in respect of which he is a contributory has been held by him and registered in his name for at least six months during the 18 months before commencement of the winding up, or the limited liability company interest has devolved on him through the death of a former holder; and
- (b) the Court shall not give a hearing to a winding up petition presented by a contingent or prospective creditor until such security for costs has been given as the Court thinks reasonable and until a prima facie case for winding up has been established to the satisfaction of the Court; and
- (c) in a case falling within paragraph (g) of section 108, the winding up petition may be presented by the Registrar.

(2) When a limited liability company is being wound up voluntarily, a winding up petition may be presented by the Official Receiver as well as by any other person authorised in that behalf under this section, but the Court shall not make a winding up order on the petition unless it is satisfied that the voluntary winding up cannot be continued with due regard to the interest of the creditors or contributories.

Powers of Court on hearing petition

111 (1) On hearing a winding up petition, the Court may dismiss it, or adjourn the hearing conditionally or unconditionally, or make any interim order, or any other order that it thinks fit, but the Court shall not refuse to make a winding up order on the ground only that the assets of the limited liability company have been mortgaged to an amount equal to or in excess of those assets or that the limited liability company has no assets.

(2) Where the petition is presented by members of the limited liability company as contributories on the ground that it is just and equitable that the limited liability company should be wound up, the Court, if it is of the opinion—

- (a) that the petitioners are entitled to relief either by winding up the limited liability company or by some other means; and
- (b) that in the absence of any other remedy it would be just and equitable that the limited liability company should be wound up, shall make a winding up order, unless it is also of the opinion both that some other remedy is available to the petitioners and that they are acting unreasonably in seeking to have the limited liability company wound up instead of pursuing that other remedy.

Powers to stay or restrain proceedings against a limited liability company

112 (1) At any time after the presentation of a winding up petition, and before a winding up order has been made, the limited liability company or any creditor or contributory may, where an action or proceeding against the limited liability company is pending, apply to the Court for a stay of those proceedings.

(2) On an application being made under subsection (1), the Court may stay the proceedings accordingly on such terms as it thinks fit.

Avoidance of dispositions of property etc. after commencement of winding up 113 (1) In a winding up by the Court, any disposition of the property of the limited liability company, including things in action, and any assignment of a limited liability company interest or alteration in the status of the members of the limited liability company, made after the commencement of the winding up, shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, be void.

(2) Where any limited liability company is being wound up by the Court, any attachment, sequestration, distress or execution put in force against the estate or effects of the limited liability company after the commencement of the winding up shall be void to all intents.

Commencement of winding up by the Court

114 (1) Where, before the presentation of a petition for the winding up of a limited liability company by the Court, a resolution has been passed by the members for voluntary winding up, the winding up of the limited liability company shall be deemed to have commenced at the time of the passing of the resolution, and unless the Court, on proof of fraud or mistake, thinks fit otherwise to direct, all proceedings taken in the voluntary winding up shall be deemed to have been validly taken.

(2) In any other case, the winding up of a limited liability company by the Court shall be deemed to commence at the time of the presentation of the petition for the winding up.

(3) On the making of a winding up order, a copy of the order must forthwith be forwarded by the limited liability company to the Registrar, who shall make a minute thereof in his books relating to the limited liability company.

(4) When a winding up order has been made or a provisional liquidator has been appointed, no action or proceeding shall be proceeded with or commenced against the limited liability company except by leave of the Court and subject to such terms as the Court may impose.

(5) An order for winding up a limited liability company shall operate in favour of all the creditors and of all the contributories of the limited liability company as if made on the joint petition of a creditor and of a contributory.

Statement of limited liability company affairs to be submitted to Official Receiver

115 (1) Where the Court has made a winding up order or appointed a provisional liquidator, there shall, unless the Court thinks fit to order otherwise and so orders, be made out and submitted to the Official Receiver a statement as to the affairs of the limited liability company in the prescribed form, verified by affidavit, and showing—

Report by Official Receiver

116 (1) In a case where a winding up order is made, the Official Receiver shall, as soon as practicable after receipt of the statement to be submitted under the last foregoing section, or, in a case where the Court orders that no statement shall be submitted, as soon as practicable after the date of the order, submit a preliminary report to the Court—

- (a) as to the amount of LLC interests issued and paid up, and the estimated amount of assets and liabilities; and

(2) The Official Receiver may also, if he thinks fit, make a further report, or further reports, stating the manner in which the limited liability company was formed and whether in his opinion any fraud has been committed by any person in its formation, by any officer or manager of the limited liability company in relation to the limited liability company since the formation thereof, and any other matters which in his opinion it is desirable to bring to the notice of the Court.

(3) If the Official Receiver states in any such further report as aforesaid that in his opinion a fraud has been committed as aforesaid, the Court shall have the further powers provided in section 143.

Exercise and control of liquidator's powers

123 (1) Subject to this Act, the liquidator of a limited liability company which is being wound up by the Court shall, in the administration of the assets of the limited liability company and in the distribution thereof among its creditors, have regard to any directions that may be given by resolution of the creditors or contributories at any meeting of the members or by the committee of inspection, and any directions given by the creditors or contributories at any meeting of the members shall in case of conflict be deemed to override any directions given by the committee of inspection.

(3) The liquidator may apply to the Court in manner prescribed for directions in relation to any particular matter arising under the winding up.

(4) Subject to this Act, the liquidator shall use his own discretion in the management of the estate and its distribution among the creditors.

(5) If any person is dissatisfied by any act, omission or decision of the liquidator, that person may apply to the Court, and the Court may confirm, reverse or modify the act or decision complained of, and may give such directions or make such order in the premises as it thinks just.

124 Every liquidator of a limited liability company which is being wound up by the Court shall keep, in the manner prescribed, proper books in which he shall cause to be made entries or minutes of proceedings at meetings, and of such other matters as may be prescribed, and any creditor or contributory may, subject to the control of the Court, personally or by his agent inspect any such books.

Release of liquidators

125 (1) When the liquidator of a limited liability company which is being wound up by the Court has realized all the property of the limited liability company or as much thereof as can, in his opinion, be realized without needlessly protracting the liquidation and has made the final distribution, if any, to the creditors and has adjusted the rights of members among themselves, and made a final distribution of surplus assets, if any, to members in accordance with the LLC agreement, or has resigned, or has been removed from his office, the Court shall on his application and on his complying with all its requirements after hearing any objection that may be urged by any creditor, contributory or person interested against the release of the liquidator either release or withhold his release.

(2) An appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal against a decision withholding the release of a liquidator under subsection (1).

Receipts by liquidators

(2) If any liquidator at any time retains for more than 30 days a sum exceeding $5,000 after he has received directions of the Court as to how he is to deal with the money, he shall pay interest on the sum so retained at the statutory rate of interest fixed under the Interest and Credit Charges (Regulation) Act 1975 unless the Court otherwise orders.

(3) A liquidator of a limited liability company which is being wound up by the Court shall not pay any sums received by him as liquidator into his private banking account.

Audit of liquidators' accounts

127 Every liquidator of a limited liability company which is being wound up by the Court shall at such times as the Court shall direct send to the Court audited accounts of his receipts and payments as liquidator.

Meetings of creditors and members to determine whether committee of inspection shall be appointed 128 (1) When a winding up order has been made by the Court, it shall be the business of the separate meetings of the creditors and contributories summoned for the purpose of determining whether or not an application should be made to the Court for appointing a liquidator in place of the Official Receiver to determine further whether or not an application is to be made to the Court for the appointment of a committee of inspection to act with the liquidator and who are to be members of the committee if appointed.

(2) The Court may make any appointment and order required to give effect to any such determination, and if there is a difference between the determinations of the meetings of the creditors and contributories in respect of the matters aforesaid the Court shall decide the difference and make such order thereon as the Court may think fit.

Constitution and proceedings of committee of inspection

129 (1) A committee of inspection appointed in pursuance of this Act shall consist of creditors and contributories to the limited liability company or persons holding general powers of attorney from creditors or contributories in such proportions as may be agreed upon by the meetings of creditors and contributories or as, in case of difference, may be determined by the Court.

(2) The Committee shall meet at such times as it shall from time to time determine and the liquidator and any member of the committee may also call a meeting of the committee as and when either of them consider it necessary.

(3) The committee may act by a majority of its members present at a meeting but shall not act unless a majority of the committee are present.

(4) A member of the committee may resign by notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the liquidator.

(6) A member of the committee may be removed by an ordinary resolution at a meeting of creditors, if he represents creditors, or of contributories, if he represents contributories of which seven days notice has been given stating the object of the meeting.

(7) On a vacancy occurring in the committee the liquidator shall forthwith summon a meeting of creditors or of contributories, as the case may require, to fill the vacancy, and the meeting may, by resolution, reappoint the same or appoint another creditor or contributory to fill the vacancy.

(8) If the liquidator under subsection (7), having regard to the position in the winding up, is of the opinion that it is unnecessary for the vacancy to be filled, he may apply to the Court and the Court may make an order that the vacancy shall not be filled, or shall not be filled except in such circumstances as may be specified in the order.

(9) The continuing members of the committee, if not less than two, may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the committee.

Powers of Registrar where no committee of inspection

Power to stay winding up

131 (1) The Court may at any time after an order for winding up on the application either of the liquidator or the Official Receiver or any creditor or contributory and on proof to the satisfaction of the Court that all proceedings in relation to the winding up ought to be stayed, make an order staying the proceedings, either altogether or for a limited time, on such terms and conditions as the Court thinks fit.

(2) Where the Court makes an order staying the proceedings altogether, it may on hearing the liquidator, the Official Receiver, if he desires to be heard, and the interested creditors or contributories make such orders it considers desirable to enable the limited liability company to be as near as practicable as it was before the winding up order was made.

(3) On any application under this section, the Court may, before making an order, require the Official Receiver to furnish to the Court a report with respect to any facts or matters which are in his opinion relevant to the application.

(4) A copy of every order made under this section shall forthwith be forwarded by the limited liability company, or otherwise as may be prescribed, to the Registrar, who shall make a minute of the order in his books relating to the limited liability company.

Settlement of list of contributories and application of assets

132 (1) As soon as may be after making a winding up order, the Court shall settle a list of contributories with power to rectify the register of members in all cases where rectification is required in pursuance of this Act, and shall cause the assets of the limited liability company to be collected and applied in discharge of its liabilities.

(2) Where it appears to the Court, under subsection (1), that it will not be necessary to make calls on or adjust the rights of contributories, the Court may dispense with the settlement of a list of contributories.

(3) In settling the list of contributories, the Court shall distinguish between persons who are contributories in their own right and persons who are contributories as being representatives or liable for the debts of others.

Delivery of property to liquidator

133 The Court may, at any time after making a winding up order, require any contributory for the time being on the list of contributories and any trustee, receiver, banker, agent or officer of the limited liability company to pay, deliver, convey, surrender or transfer forthwith, or within such time as the Court directs, to the liquidator any money, property or books and papers in his hands to which the limited liability company is prima facie entitled.

(2) In the case of any limited liability company, when all the creditors are paid in full, any money due on any account whatever to a contributory from the limited liability company may be allowed to him by way of set-off against any subsequent call.

Power of Court to make calls

135 (1) The Court may, at any time after making a winding up order, and either before or after it has ascertained the sufficiency of the assets of the limited liability company make calls on all or any of the contributories for the time being settled on the list of the contributories to the extent of their liability, for payment of any money which the Court considers necessary to satisfy the debts and liabilities of the limited liability company, and the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, and make an order for payment of any calls so made.

(2) In making a call, the Court may take into consideration the probability that some of the contributories may partly or wholly fail to pay the call.

Order on contributory conclusive evidence

136 (1) An order made by the Court on a contributory shall, subject to any right of appeal, be conclusive evidence that the money, if any, thereby appearing to be due or ordered to be paid is due.

(2) All other pertinent matters stated in the order shall be taken to be truly stated as against all persons and in all proceedings.

Appointment of special manager

137 (1) Where in proceedings the Official Receiver becomes the liquidator of a limited liability company, whether provisionally or otherwise, he may, if satisfied that the nature of the estate or business of the limited liability company, or the interests of the creditors or contributories generally, require the appointment of a special manager of the estate or business of the limited liability company other than himself, apply to the Court, and the Court may on such application appoint a special manager of the said estate or business to act during such time as the Court may direct, with such powers, including any of the powers of a receiver, as may be entrusted to him by the Court.

(2) The special manager shall give such security and account in such manner as the Court shall direct.

(3) The special manager shall receive such remuneration as may be fixed by the Court.

Inspection of books by creditors and members

140 (1) The Court may, at any time after making a winding up order, make such order for inspection of the books and papers of the limited liability company by creditors and contributories as the Court thinks just, and any books and papers in the possession of the limited liability company may be inspected by creditors or contributories accordingly, but not further or otherwise.

(2) The Court may examine such person on oath, concerning the matters aforesaid, either by word of mouth or on written interrogatories, and may reduce his answers to writing and require him to sign them.

(3) The Court may require such person to produce any books and papers in his custody or power relating to the limited liability company, but, where he claims any lien on books or papers produced by him, the production shall be without prejudice to that lien, and the Court shall have jurisdiction in the winding up to determine all questions relating to that lien.

(4) If any person so summoned, after being tendered a reasonable sum for his expenses, refuses to come before the Court at the time appointed, not having a lawful excuse, made known to the Court at the time of its sitting and allowed by it, the Court may cause him to be apprehended and brought before the Court for examination.

Power to order public examination of officer or manager

143 (1) Where an order has been made for winding up a limited liability company by the Court, the Official Receiver may make a report under this Act stating that in his opinion any person who has taken part in the formation of the limited liability company, or any officer or manager of the limited liability company since its formation has been guilty of fraud or dishonesty or has been in default in complying with the provisions of the law relating to the limited liability companies or has shown himself to have acted in an improper, reckless or incompetent manner in relation to the limited liability company's affairs.

(2) Where a report is made to the Court under subsection (1), the Court may, after consideration of the Official Receiver's report, direct that the person, officer, manager or member referred to in the report shall attend before the Court on a day appointed for that purpose and be publicly examined as to his conduct in relation to the limited liability company.

(3) The Official Receiver shall take part in the examination either in person or by attorney.

(7) A person ordered to be examined under this section shall at his own cost, before his examination, be furnished with a copy of the Official Receiver's report, and may at his own cost employ an attorney who shall be at liberty to put to him such questions as the Court may deem just for the purpose of enabling him to explain or qualify any answers given by him.

(8) If, under subsection (7), any such person applies to the Court to be exculpated from any charges made or suggested against him—

(a) it shall be the duty of the Official Receiver to appear on the hearing of the application and call the attention of the Court to any matters which appear to the Official Receiver to be relevant; and

(b) if the Court, after hearing any evidence given or witnesses called by the Official Receiver, grants the application, the Court may allow the applicant such costs as in its discretion it may think fit.

(9) Notes of the examination shall be taken down in writing, and shall be read over to or by, and signed by, the person examined, and may thereafter be used in evidence against him, and shall be open to the inspection of any creditor or contributory at all reasonable times.

(10) An examination under this section, may if the Court so directs, be held by any person appointed by the Court for that purpose and such person shall have all the powers of the Court in conducting such examination.

Powers to arrest absconding contributory

144 The Court, at any time either before or after making a winding up order, on proof of probable cause for believing that a contributory is about to quit Bermuda or otherwise to abscond or to remove or conceal any of his property for the purpose of evading payment of calls or of avoiding examination respecting the affairs of the limited liability company, may cause the contributory to be arrested and his books and papers and movable personal property to be seized and him and them to be safely kept until such time as the Court may order.

Powers of Court cumulative

145 Any powers by this Act conferred on the Court shall be in addition to and not in restriction of any existing powers of instituting proceedings against any contributory debtor of the limited liability company or the estate of any contributory or debtor, for the recovery of any call or other sums.

- (b) the settling of lists of contributories and the rectifying of the register of members where required, and the collecting and applying of the assets;
- (c) the paying, delivery, conveyance, surrender or transfer of money, property, books or papers to the liquidator;
- (d) the making of calls;
- (e) the fixing of a time within which debts and claims must be proved;
- (f) the use of electronic means of communication, to be exercised or performed by the liquidator as an officer of the Court, and subject to the control of the Court.

(2) Under subsection (1), the liquidator shall not—

- (a) without the special leave of the Court, rectify the register of members; or
- (b) make any call without either the special leave of the Court or the sanction of the committee of inspection.

(3) Rules made under subsection (1) shall not be subject to Parliamentary scrutiny by virtue of section 6 of the Statutory Instruments Act 1977.

Early dissolution

147 (1) This section applies where an order for the winding up of a limited liability company has been made by the Court.

(2) The Official Receiver, if—

- (a) he is the liquidator of the limited liability company, and
- (b) it appears to him—
 - (i) that the realisable assets of the limited liability company are insufficient to cover the expenses of the winding up; and
 - (ii) that the affairs of the limited liability company do not require any further investigation, may at any time apply to the Registrar for the early dissolution of the limited liability company.

(3) Before making that application, the Official Receiver shall give not less than 28 days' notice of his intention to do so to the limited liability company's creditors and contributories and, if there is a receiver of the limited liability company, to that receiver.

(4) With the giving of that notice the Official Receiver ceases (subject to any directions under section 148) to be required to perform any duties imposed on him in relation to the limited liability company, its creditors or contributories by virtue of any provision of this Act, apart from a duty to make an application under subsection (2).

(5) On the receipt of the Official Receiver's application under subsection (2), the Registrar shall forthwith register it and, at the end of the period of three months beginning with the day of the registration of the application, the limited liability company shall be dissolved; however, the Minister may, on the application of the Official Receiver or any other person who appears to the Minister to be interested, give directions under section 148 at any time before the end of that period.

Consequences of notice under section 147

148 (1) Where a notice has been given under section 147(3), the Official Receiver or any creditor of or contributory of the limited liability company or the receiver of the limited liability company (if there is one) may apply to the Minister for directions under this section.

(2) The grounds on which that application may be made are—

- (a) that the realisable assets of the limited liability company are sufficient to cover the expenses of the winding up;
- (b) that the affairs of the limited liability company do require further investigation; or
- (c) that for any other reason the early dissolution of the limited liability company is inappropriate.

out of money advanced by some person for that purpose, the person by whom the money was advanced shall in a winding up have a right of priority in respect of the money so advanced and paid up to the amount by which the sum in respect of which the employee or other person in his right, would have been entitled to priority in the winding up has been diminished by reason of the payment having been made.

(6) The foregoing debts shall—

- (a) rank equally among themselves and be paid in full, unless the assets are insufficient to meet them, in which case they shall abate in equal proportions; and

(7) Subject to the retention of such sums as may be necessary for the costs and expenses of the winding up, the foregoing debts shall be discharged forthwith so far as the assets are sufficient to meet them, and in the case of the debts to which priority is given by paragraph (d) of subsection (1) formal proof thereof shall not be required.

(8) In the event of a landlord or other person distraining or having distrained on any goods or effects of the limited liability company within three months next before the date of a winding up order, the debts to which priority is given by this section shall be a first charge on the goods or effects so distrained on, or the proceeds of the sale thereof, except that, in respect of any money paid under any such charge, the landlord or other person shall have the same rights of priority as the person to whom the payment is made.

(9) For the purpose of this section—

- (a) any remuneration in respect of a period of holiday or absence from work through sickness or other good cause shall be deemed to be wages in respect of services rendered to the limited liability company during that period;
- (b) the expression “accrued holiday remuneration” includes in relation to any person, all sums which, by virtue either of his contract of employment or of any enactment, including any order made or direction given under an Act, are payable on account of the remuneration which would, in the ordinary course, have become payable to him in respect of a period of holiday had his employment with the limited liability company continued until he became entitled to be allowed the holiday;
- (c) the expression “the relevant date” means—
 - (i) in the case of a limited liability company ordered to be wound up compulsorily, the date of the appointment, or first appointment, of a provisional liquidator, or, if no such appointment was made, the date of the winding up order, unless in either case the limited liability company had commenced to be wound up voluntarily before that date; and
 - (ii) in any case where the foregoing subparagraph does not apply, means the date of the passing of the resolution for the winding up of the limited liability company.

Fraudulent preference

187 (1) Any conveyance, mortgage, delivery of goods, payment, execution or other act relating to property made or done by or against a limited liability company within six months before the commencement of its winding up which, had it been made or done by or against an individual within six months before the presentation of a bankruptcy petition on which he is adjudged bankrupt, would be deemed in his bankruptcy a fraudulent preference, shall in the event of the limited liability company being wound up be deemed a fraudulent preference of its creditors and be invalid accordingly.

(2) Any conveyance or assignment by a limited liability company of all its property to trustees for the benefit of all its creditors shall be void to all intents.

Liability and rights of certain fraudulently preferred persons

188 (1) Where anything made or done is void under section 187 as a fraudulent preference of a person interested in property mortgaged or charged to secure the limited liability company's debt, then, without prejudice to any rights or liabilities arising apart from this provision, the person preferred shall be subject to the same liabilities, and shall have the same rights, as if he had undertaken to be personally liable as surety for the debts to the extent of the charge on the property or the value of his interest, whichever is the less.

(2) The value of the said person's interest shall be determined as at the date of the transaction constituting the fraudulent preference, and shall be determined as if the interest were free of all encumbrances other than those to which the charge for the limited liability company's debts was then subject.

(3) On any application made to the Court with respect to any payment on the ground that the payment was a fraudulent preference of a surety or guarantor, the Court shall have jurisdiction to determine any questions with respect to the payment arising between the person to whom the payment was made and the surety or guarantor and to grant relief in respect thereof, notwithstanding that it is not necessary so to do for the purposes of the winding up and for that purpose may give leave to bring in the surety or guarantor as a third party as in the case of an action for the recovery of the sum paid.

(4) Subsection (3) shall apply, with the necessary modifications, in relation to transactions other than the payment of money as it applies in relation to payments.

Effect of floating charge

189 Where a limited liability company is being wound up, a floating charge on the undertaking or property of the limited liability company created within 12 months of the commencement of the winding up shall, unless it is proved that the limited liability company immediately after the creation of the charge was solvent, be invalid, except to the amount of any cash paid to the limited liability company at the time of or subsequently to the creation of, and in consideration for, the charge, together with interest on that amount at the statutory rate fixed under the Interest and Credit Charges (Regulation) Act 1975.

Disclaimer of onerous property

190 (1) The liquidator of a limited liability company may with the leave of the Court disclaim any property belonging to the limited liability company whether real or personal including any right of action or right under a contract which in his opinion is onerous for the limited liability company to hold or is unprofitable or unsaleable.

(2) The disclaimer shall operate to determine, as from the date of disclaimer, the rights, interest and liabilities of the limited liability company, and the property of the limited liability company in or in respect of the property disclaimed, but shall not, except so far as is necessary for the purpose of releasing the limited liability company and the property of the limited liability company from liability, affect the rights or liabilities of any other person.

(3) The Court, before or on granting leave to disclaim, may require such notices to be given to persons interested, and impose such terms as a condition of granting leave, and make such other order in the matter as the Court thinks just.

(4) The Court may, on an application by any person who either claims any interest in any disclaimed property or is under any liability not discharged by this Act in respect of any disclaimed property and on hearing any such persons as it thinks fit, make an order for the vesting of the property in or the delivery of the property to any persons entitled thereto, or to whom it may seem just that the property should be delivered by way of compensation for such liability as aforesaid, or a trustee for him, and on such terms as the Court thinks just, and on any such vesting order being made, the property comprised therein shall vest accordingly in the person therein named in that behalf without any conveyance or assignment for the purpose.

(5) Any person injured by the operation of a disclaimer under this section shall be deemed to be a creditor of the limited liability company to the amount of the injury, and may accordingly prove the amount as a debt in the winding up.

Restriction of rights of creditor as to execution or attachment in case of limited liability company being wound up

191 (1) Where a creditor has issued execution against the goods or lands of a limited liability company or has attached any debt due to the limited liability company, and the limited liability company is subsequently wound up, he shall not be entitled to retain the benefit of the execution or attachment against the liquidator in the winding up of the limited liability company unless he has completed the execution or attachment before the commencement of the winding up, except that—

- (a) where any creditor has had notice of a meeting having been called at which a resolution for voluntary winding up is to be proposed, the date on which the creditor so had notice shall for the purpose of the foregoing provision, be substituted for the date of the commencement of the winding up;
- (b) a person who purchases in good faith under a sale by the Provost Marshal any goods of a limited liability company on which an execution has been levied shall in all cases acquire a good title to them against the liquidator; and
- (c) the rights conferred by this subsection on the liquidator may be set aside by the Court in favour of the creditor to such extent and subject to such terms as the Court may think fit.

(2) For the purposes of this section, an execution against goods shall be taken to be completed by seizure and sale, and an attachment of a debt shall be deemed to be completed by receipt of the debt, and an execution against land shall be deemed to be completed by seizure or by the appointment of a receiver.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3), where under an execution in respect of a judgment for a sum exceeding $500 the goods of a limited liability company are sold or money is paid in order to avoid sale, the Provost Marshal shall deduct the costs of the execution from the proceeds of the sale or the money paid and retaining the balance for 14 days, and if within that time notice is served on him of a petition for the winding up of the limited liability company having been presented or of a meeting having been called at which there is to be proposed a resolution for the voluntary winding up of the limited liability company and an order is made or a resolution is passed, as the case may be, for the winding up of the limited liability company, the Provost Marshal shall pay the balance to the liquidator, who shall be entitled to retain it as against the execution creditor.
