Service

13 (1) The following provisions shall apply to service of applications, answers, orders, notices and other documents which, by the Act or the rules made thereunder, are required to be served on any person—

- (a) service may be effected by sending (within twenty-four hours after the document to be served has been lodged with the Registrar) a copy thereof by prepaid registered post to the party to be served at his address for service; every copy so sent shall, until the contrary is proved or unless and until the copy is returned by the postal authorities, be deemed to have been served on the person to whom it was so addressed at the time at which it would be delivered in the ordinary course of post;
- (b) where a party to an application employs a legal representative for the purposes of the application, service upon that party may be effected by delivery of the document at the office of such legal representative;
- (c) service may also be effected through the Provost Marshal General.
- (d) service may be validly effected in any other manner provided that a receipt, stating the date and hour of service signed by the person to be served or by a person entitled to give such receipt on his behalf, is endorsed on the document or on a copy thereof

(2) Where any respondent to an application either does not come within the provisions made in rule 12 of these Rules, or cannot be served in any of the manners provided in that rule, the court may, upon application ex parte supported by an affidavit stating the circumstances, direct in what manner service shall be effected upon him, including service by newspaper advertisement; and service in accordance with such directions shall be valid and effectual,

(3) Save where other provision is made, service shall be effected by or at the instance of the parties.

Forms 1, 2 and 3 (applications)

14 (1) A workman or an employer who desires the determination of any question arising out of an accident in which compensation is or might be claimed shall lodge with the Registrar a written application in Form 1, Form 2 or Form 3.

(2) If the application be made by an employer, it shall be accompanied by a statement whether he admits his liability to pay compensation or denies such liability, and whether the admission or denial is total or partial, and if he admits or denies liability partially, a statement of the extent to which he admits or denies liability: In the case of a denial of liability, the grounds shall be stated.

Forms 4 and 5

15 (1) As soon as an application, together with the accompanying particulars and statements herein prescribed, has been lodged, the Registrar shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the respondent in Form 4, together with a notice informing the respondent that he must lodge with the Registrar such an answer as is prescribed in paragraph (2) within the period therein prescribed, and that in default of his complying with that paragraph or of his appearing at a time and place fixed in the notice, such order may be made as to the court seems just and expedient. Save with the written consent of the respondent communicated to the Registrar, not less than fourteen clear days shall elapse between the date of the service of the notice upon the respondent and the date fixed for hearing the application.

(2) If the respondent intends to oppose an application he shall, within seven days after service of the notice, or within such extended period as the court may upon application allow, lodge with the Registrar a written answer in Form 5 containing a concise statement of the extent and grounds of his opposition, and serve a copy of such answer upon the appellant.

Form 6

16 (1) The respondent may, not later than seven days after he has received notice of application, serve on the applicant a request in writing, in Form 6, for further particulars of the grounds upon which the application is made, specifying in such request the questions as to which he desires to have information; and the applicant may, not later than seven days after he has received the answer to the application, serve on the respondent a request in writing for similar particulars of the grounds upon which the application is opposed.

(2) A copy of any such request shall forthwith be lodged with the Registrar by the party making the request, and a copy of any reply thereto shall forthwith be lodged with the Registrar by the party making the reply.

(3) If the party so requested to furnish particulars fails to do so within seven days from the date of service of the request aforesaid and in consequence of such failure it is necessary to adjourn the hearing of the application, the court may order that the costs occasioned by such adjournment shall be paid by the party so in default. The court may disallow, with costs, any request for particulars which appears to the court to be unnecessary or vexatious. The court may award against the party making a request for particulars, the costs of the replies thereto.

Amendment

17 (1) The court may, at any time before the determination of the question in dispute, and upon such terms as to adjournment or as to costs as may be deemed just, allow an application, or any particulars or statement accompanying the same, or any answer thereto to be amended.

(2) Where a party wishes to make any such amendment, he shall lodge with the Registrar an application in writing with a statement of such amendment thereto annexed; and shall at the same time serve a copy thereof on the other party or parties to the proceedings.

Payment into court

19 (1) A respondent from whom compensation is claimed may at any time upon notice to the applicant pay into court a sum which is considered by him to be sufficient to cover his liability.

(2) If no greater compensation be awarded than the sum of money which the respondent has paid into court, the court may order that any costs incurred by such respondent, after payment by him into court of the said sum of money, shall be paid by the applicant.

Form 11

20 (1) Where a principal has given notice to a contractor of a claim or application for compensation made against the principal, and the contractor desires to intervene, he shall forthwith lodge with the Registrar a notice, in Form 11, that he so intervenes and shall forthwith serve copies of such notice of intervention upon the applicant and the principal. The contractor shall thereupon be entitled to make or obtain on payment copies of the application and of any other document then lodged with the Registrar in connection with the application.

(2) A contractor or who has so lodged with the Registrar notice that he intervenes shall lodge an answer to the application within seven days after service upon him of the said notice given by the principal or within such further time as the court may on application allow.

(3) The court may, on the hearing of the application, either order that such person be made a respondent if the court is satisfied that he is entitled so to intervene, or may refuse to make him a respondent and order him to pay the costs incurred by his intervention if satisfied that he is not entitled so to intervene.

Appearance of contractor; default

21 If any person served with a notice as a contractor desires to dispute the applicant's claim or his own liability to the principal, he shall appear before the court; and in default of his so doing he shall be deemed to admit both the validity of any order made against the principal whether such order is made by consent or otherwise, and his own liability to indemnify the principal to the extent claimed in the notice served on him by the principal.

Order for joinder

In the latter case any other person known to the applicant to be a person to whom any such expenses are due shall be joined in the application either as applicant or as respondent.

(2) Where the amount awarded by the court on any such application is sufficient to pay such expenses in full, it shall be apportioned between the persons to whom such expenses are payable in such manner as the court shall direct.

Payment into court

(2) The case shall be signed and sent to the Registrar of the Supreme Court, who shall forthwith transmit the same to a judge of the Supreme Court.

(3) So soon thereafter as possible, such judge shall fix a day and hour for hearing the case and the Registrar shall cause due notice of the day and hour appointed for hearing the case to be given to the parties; such notice shall be not less than fourteen clear days before the date of the hearing, unless a judge of the Supreme Court shall, with the consent of all parties, fix an earlier day.
