- (8) Under this item—

For the purposes of calculating the building permit fee in accordance with paragraphs (1)(a)(i) and (2)(a)(i), the floorspace to which the fee shall apply means the total gross square footage of new construction, including verandas and balconies, but excluding water tanks, outdoor paved areas, patios and the like;

"accessory structures" include, but are not limited to, tennis courts, parking areas, driveways, docks, walls, satellite dish receivers, signs, piers, platforms, patios and like structures which do not result in the creation of additional, enclosed floorspace, that are incidental to the principal building and located on the same lot; and, for the avoidance of doubt, a swimming pool is not an accessory structure and any separate application for a pool shall be subject to the minimum fee set out in either paragraph (1)(a)(i) or (2)(a)(i), whichever is applicable;

"re-inspection of works" means a re-inspection made because, at a previous, scheduled visit to the works, either—

- (a) conditions at the works prevented proper access to the works; or
- (b) the works did not meet the requirements of the Building Code Regulations 1991; or
- (c) the works for some other reason were not available or ready for inspection; or
- (d) a copy of the approved drawings was not available on-site.

In the case of an existing building where the application relates to building works designed specifically to provide access for, or otherwise meet the needs of, the physically handicapped, no fee shall be charged.

In the case of alterations or extensions to a building listed as a building of special architectural or historical interest in accordance with section 30 of the Development and Planning Act 1974, no fee shall be charged.
