The Collector of Customs, in exercise of the power conferred by sections 3B and 6B of the Revenue Act 1898, issues the following Notice:

Citation

1 This Notice may be cited as the Advance Delivery of Aircraft Passenger and Crew Manifests Notice 2025.

Interpretation

2 In this Notice—

“the Act” means the Revenue Act 1898;

“aircraft” includes every description of aeroplane or other aircraft;

ADVANCE DELIVERY OF AIRCRAFT PASSENGER AND CREW MANIFESTS NOTICE 2025

“API” refers to advance passenger information as defined in section 2 of the Act;

“manifest” means the manifest referred to in sections 3A and 6A of the Act;

“PNR” refers to passenger name record as defined in section 2 of the Act;

“PNRGOV” is a standardized EDIFACT message format used to transmit PNR data to governments;

“UN/EDIFACT” means the international standard for electronic data interchange, used for the administration of commerce and transport developed by the United Nations.

Application of this Notice to aircraft

3 Sections 3A and 6A of the Act and this Notice shall apply in respect of every aircraft departing for Bermuda and every aircraft departing from Bermuda.

Electronic means of delivery of manifest

4 The commander or the agent or representative of an aircraft shall deliver the manifest or summary manifest electronically by the “push” method, which shall be in a format that is consistent with the UN/EDIFACT or PNRGOV standard.

Time of delivery of inward manifest

5 (1) The commander or the agent or representative of an aircraft shall deliver the manifests at the following times—

- (a) not later than seventy-two hours prior to the time of departure (referred to as T-72) of the aircraft for Bermuda;
- (b) not later than twenty-four hours prior to the time of departure (referred to as T-24) of the aircraft for Bermuda; and
- (c) not later than one hour prior to the time of departure (referred to as T-1) of the aircraft for Bermuda.

(2) The commander or the agent or representative of any air ambulance in service of a medical emergency may, instead of complying with subparagraphs (1)(a) and (b), deliver the manifest not later than thirty minutes prior to the time of departure of the air ambulance for Bermuda.

Time of delivery of outward manifest

6 (1) The commander or the agent or representative of an aircraft shall deliver the manifests at the following times—

- (a) not later than seventy-two hours prior to the time of departure (referred to as T-72) of the aircraft from Bermuda;
