ARRANGEMENT OF REGULATIONS

- 1 Interpretation
- 2 Permit to pilot excepted ship if not master or owner
- 3 Offences

Interpretation

- 1 In these Regulations—

"excepted ship" means a ship excepted from compulsory pilotage by reason of the operation of section 48 of the Marine Board Act 1962 [title 22 item 3].

Permit to pilot excepted ship if not master or owner

- 2 No person, other than the master or owner of an excepted ship, shall pilot or offer or attempt to pilot such excepted ship (not being then in danger or distress) within the waters of Bermuda, without being in possession of a permit granted by the Minister or by the Pilot Warden.

Offences

- 3 Any contravention of regulation 2 shall render the offender liable to the penalties provided by section 112 of the Marine Board Act 1962.
