

BERMUDA

ROYAL BERMUDA REGIMENT
(JUNIOR LEADERS) (OFFICERS) RULES 2017

BR 66 / 2017

The Governor, in exercise of the power conferred by section 8 of the Royal Bermuda Regiment (Junior Leaders) Act 2015, makes the following Rules—

Citation

1 These Rules may be cited as the Royal Bermuda Regiment (Junior Leaders) (Officers) Rules 2017.

Applicants

2 (1) The following persons are eligible to apply for appointment as a commissioned officer in the Junior Leaders—

- (a) a member or former member of the Royal Bermuda Regiment;
- (b) an educator (as defined in Bermuda Educator's Council Act 2002); or
- (c) any other person in possession of qualifications ideally suited, in the opinion of the Commanding Officer, for the training of junior leaders.

(2) All applicants must submit a completed application form containing such information as may be required by the Commanding Officer.

Applicants: selection criteria

3 Before the Commanding Officer approves an application, the applicant must attend a selection interview, to be presided over by the Commandant and the Royal Bermuda Regiment Second-in-Command, and must satisfy the following criteria—

- (a) pass security vetting conducted by—
  - (i) the Bermuda Police Service; and

ROYAL BERMUDA REGIMENT (JUNIOR LEADERS) (OFFICERS) RULES 2017

---

- (ii) the Department of Child and Family Services;
- (b) be in good physical condition, as evidenced in writing by a medical practitioner, of a standard that would allow the applicant to—
  - (i) conduct physically challenging activities, and
  - (ii) lead physically challenging activities;
- (c) submit to and successfully pass testing for controlled drugs (as defined in the Misuse of Drugs Act 1972);
- (d) be willing to be present for duty on weekends and public holidays, as may be required from time to time;
- (e) be willing to attend the Royal Bermuda Regiment recruit camp (unless previously attended or excused by the Commanding Officer);
- (f) be willing to undertake additional adult instructor training (locally or overseas);
- (g) be willing to attend task-related courses (including training courses and child protection courses) as directed by the Commandant or the Commanding Officer; and
- (h) be willing to help junior leaders develop in accordance with the training syllabus.

Commencement

4 These Rules come into operation on 12 June 2017.

Made this 2nd day of June 2017

Governor and Commander-in-Chief