CONTRIBUTORY PENSIONS ACT 1970

SECOND SCHEDULE

RATES OF CONTRIBUTORY OLD AGE PENSIONS AND RELEVANT CONTRIBUTION CONDITIONS

1 Subject to the following provisions of this Schedule, the contribution conditions for receipt of a contributory old age pension at the rate of $271.51 a week are as follows:—

(1) The first contribution condition is that not less than 484 contributions have been paid by, or in respect of or credited to, the claimant in respect of the period between his entry into insurance and pension age; and

(2) The second contribution condition is that the yearly average of the contributions paid by, or in respect of or credited to him (ascertained at pension age), is not less than 50.

2 Subject to paragraph 3, the weekly rate of pension shall be increased by $1.60 for every 26 contributions paid by, or in respect of the claimant and in excess of the minimum number specified in the first contribution condition, in respect of the period between his entry into insurance and pension age.

3 Where the first contribution condition is satisfied but the second contribution condition is not, then, if the yearly average of the contributions paid by, or in respect of or credited to, the claimant (ascertained as at pension age) is not less than 25, the contribution conditions shall be deemed to be satisfied for the receipt of a reduced rate of pension calculated as a proportion of the pension which would otherwise be payable, in accordance with the following scale:—

(1)	For a yearly average of not less than 45 but less than 50	Nine-tenths
(2)	For a yearly average of not less than 40 but less than 45	Four-fifths
(3)	For a yearly average of not less than 35 but less than 40	Seven-tenths
(4)	For a yearly average of not less than 30 but less than 35	Three-fifths
(5)	For a yearly average of not less than 25 but less than 30	One-half

Provided that the reduced rate of pension shall not be less than a weekly rate of $128.23 where the claimant can establish that his total income from all sources (excluding any contributory old age pension granted under this Act) does not exceed $4,000 a year for so long as his income does not exceed $4,000 a year.

4 (1) Where contributions are paid by or in respect of a claimant after he has attained pension age, his entitlement to a contributory old age pension in relation to the period after pension age shall be calculated on the basis of one half of the contribution rate paid by or in respect of an insured person under pension age.

(2) The entitlement to an old age pension of a person in respect of whom contributions are paid after he has attained pension age but who has not received a contributory old age pension or an old age gratuity, shall be re-assessed by the Director on the anniversary of the date on which he attained pension age; and if on such re-assessment his entitlement is established a contributory old age pension shall be payable.

(3) Where a person has received an old age gratuity on attaining pension age and contributions are paid by or in respect of him after that age by reason of his gainful employment, his entitlement to a contributory old age pension shall be re-assessed when such contributions cease.

(4) Where a person in respect of whom contributions are paid after he has attained pension age is in receipt of a contributory old age pension, his entitlement to an old age pension at the higher rate shall be re-assessed after such contributions cease.

[Second Schedule amended by BR 43/1990 effective 16 August 1990; by BR 36/1991 effective 16 August 1991; by BR 37/1992 effective 16 August 1992; by BR 33/1993 effective 16 August 1993 by BR 44/1995 effective 16 August 1995; by BR 49/1998 effective 16 August 1998; by BR 31/2000 effective 16 August 2000; by BR 31/2002 effective 16 August 2002; by 2002:27 s.2(b) effective 6 December 2002; by BR 56/2003 effective 16 August 2003; by BR 42/2004 effective 16 August 2004; by BR 32/2006 effective 16 August 2006; by BR17/2007 effective 16 August 2007; by BR 23/2008 effective 16 August 2008; by BR 29/2009 effective 16 August 2009; by BR 41 / 2011 para. 2 effective 16 August 2011; by BR 63 / 2016 para. 2 effective 16 August 2016; amended by BR 121 / 2017 para. 2 effective 16 August 2017; amended by BR 51 / 2020 para. 2 effective 16 August 2020; amended by BR 22 / 2023 para. 2 effective 16 August 2021; amended by BR 75 / 2023 para. 2 effective 16 August 2023; amended by BR 133 / 2024 para. 2 effective 16 August 2024]

[10 March 2017: It has come to the attention of the Attorney-General that para 1(1) of the Second Schedule was mistakenly changed to read "250 contributions", probably when a similar amendment was made to the Third Schedule by BR 31/1987 or during the 1989 Revision. The figure of 484 contributions was inserted in para 1(1) by BR 39/1986 with effect from 16 July 1986, and the figure has not been amended since that date.]

[NB reference to 21 years in proviso not amended by 2001:20 – see s.6(3) & Sch 1 of that Act.]

2 Where the first contribution condition is satisfied but the second contribution condition is not, then, if the yearly average of the contributions paid by, or in respect of or credited to, the husband (ascertained as at the relevant time) is not less than 25, the contribution conditions shall be deemed to be satisfied for the receipt of a reduced rate of widow's allowances calculated as a proportion of the allowance which would otherwise be payable, in accordance with the following scale:—

Provided that the reduced rate of widow's allowance shall not be less than a weekly rate of $128.23 where the claimant can establish that her total income from all sources (excluding any widow's allowance granted under this Act) does not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars a year for so long as her income does not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars a year.
